

JOHN F. BROTHERS/DAILY COURIER

Support given to Challenge program

Fayette County Businesses Ambassadors contributed $41,250 to The Challenge Program Inc. to support the program's efforts to motivate and reward high school students during the 2007-2008 school year. Presenting are (front, from left) Jill Seder, Tele-Tech; Shirley Sofranko, Trident Systems; Mary Dreliszak, The Challenge Program; Ken Bryan, Planning Systems Inc.; Ed Nichols, Trident Systems; Kay Maghen; Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort; (back, from left) Robert Pena, BAE Systems; Robert Marcinek, Trident Systems; Anthony Rudzki, Trident Systems; Kevin Muehring, Advanced Acoustic Concepts and Theresa Paulina, Image Time Inc. Through The Challenge Program, sophomore, junior and senior high school students who excel in the areas of Most Improved Academically, Best Attendance, Community Service, and Best Overall GPA will receive an award in the amount of $250 for his or her efforts. The amount of awards in each school totals $3,000. Participating Fayette County schools and their business ambassadors include Albert Gallatin High School, TeleTech and Planning Systems Inc.; Brownsville Area High School, Lou Brown; Connellsville Area High School, Armstrong and BAE Systems; Connellsville Career and Technology Center, Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort and Spa; Fayette County Area Career and Technology Center, Argon ST and Shumar's Welding and Machine Services; Frazier High School, Blaney Farms and Image Time Inc.; Geibel Catholic High School, Trident Systems Inc.; Laurel Highlands High School, Advanced Acoustic Concepts; and Uniontown High School, BAE Systems and Trident Systems Inc.