

The Challenge Program honors FCCTI students

submitted photo | Posted: Wednesday, August 12, 2015 2:00 am

Submitted photo

The Challenge Program Inc. distributed financial awards to seniors at the Fayette County Career and Technical Institute for excelling in the areas of attendance, academic improvement, academic excellence, STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) and community service. Columbia Pipeline Group is the sponsor of the program at the school. Pictured are (from left) Susan Adams, who received the STEM award; Keremy Kelley, who received the award for community service; Martin Cramer, who received the award for academic excellence; and Mark Ziegenfuss, a representative with The Challenge Program Inc.

FCCTI students honored for academic improvement, attendance

submitted photo | Posted: Wednesday, August 12, 2015 2:00 am

submitted photo

The Challenge Program Inc. distributed financial awards to seniors at the Fayette County Career and Technical Institute for excelling in the areas of attendance, academic improvement, academic excellence, STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) and community service. Columbia Pipeline Group is the sponsor of the program at the school. Pictured are (from left) Mark Ziegenfuss, a representative with The Challenge Program Inc.; Doug Ecklor, who received an award for academic improvement; and Ben Holup, who received an award for attendance.